Tier III ~ Your Minor

■ What is the Tier Three Minor?

Tier III consists of three courses in one area of disciplinary study in the Humanities, Interdisciplinary Concentrations, Natural Sciences or Social Sciences.

- How many credits do I need to complete the minor?
 - You will need two courses at the 3000 level and one (capstone) course at the 4000/5000 level.
- What Tier three minors are available?
 - Review the Undergraduate Bulletin for a complete listing of the Tier III Minors.
- Who can tell me more about a particular minor?
 - You are strongly advised to consult with a faculty advisor for specific courses; appropriate course selection; prerequisites and the sequence of each minor before you register for Tier III courses.
- What about a business minor?
 - While you must complete a minor from a non-business discipline, you may also complete a second minor from a business discipline.

Additional Degree Requirements Beyond Core Curriculum –

What are these requirements?

- Pre - Business (Zicklin School of Business) requirements
 - Pre - SPA (School of Public Affairs) requirements
 - Additional requirements for Liberal Arts (BA) majors
 - Additional requirements for Business (BBA) majors
 - Additional requirements for Public Affairs (BS) majors
 - Major
 - Electives
- NOTE: The following listing of courses is not a full listing of all degree requirements. Review the areas listed above for a complete list of your requirements. Always review your Student Degree Audit; Undergraduate Bulletin and consult with your academic advisor for additional guidance.

Eligibility Requirements for the BS Degree

- The Bachelor of Science in Public Affairs criteria for admission is as follows:

Completion of 9 courses with a GPA of at least 2.25: PUB 1250, ENG 2100, ENG 2150, STA 2100 (or STA 2000), and any 2000-level math course, ECO 1001, COM 1010, CIS 2200 and POL 2332.

NOTE: ECO 1002 and LAW 1101 are NOT required for admission into the BSPA. Students should take PUB 1250 NOT POL 1101 for their common core. PUB 1250 is required. However, if students have already taken POL 1101, they may be waived from the PUB 1250 requirement.

Once these requirements have been met, students should fill out the online Eligibility Review for Your Major form. Once they have been approved for the major, they may declare their major officially (086) and begin taking major courses
