

Black and Latino Studies

Students who minor in Black & Hispanic Studies will be able:

- to recount major events in the history and contemporary experience of Black and/or Hispanic/Latino persons in the Americas and/or around the globe;
- to analyze and evaluate theories of racism, xenophobia, prejudice, discrimination, or hate;
- to describe and detail the legacies of imperialism, colonialism and racial slavery left among black and Hispanic/Latino nations and communities;
- to describe and detail the legacies of imperialism, colonialism and racial slavery left among black and Hispanic/Latino nations and communities;
- to demonstrate through writing, media, or performance their acquired knowledge about the Black and/or Hispanic experience.
- State fundamental scientific theories and explain the observations and experimental evidence on which they are based.