

Baruch College Consent Form

Posting of Live and Recorded Events on the Baruch College Web Site

Authorization and License to Publish Online

1. Grant of Rights to Publish. The undersigned hereby grants to Baruch College, non-exclusive, worldwide, royalty-free, irrevocable license to publish on its web site a live webcast and/or recording of the presentation listed below.
2. Presenter's Retention of Ownership. Other than granting Baruch College the license set forth above, the Presenter retains all right, title, and interest in the content of the presentation. This license does not transfer Baruch College any title or ownership of the content of the presentation.
3. Notice Request: Baruch College will post a notice on its web site granting permission for noncommercial reproduction of the recording for educational or research purposes.
4. Warranties. The Presenter represents and warrants to Baruch College that the presentation does not contain any libelous or defamatory material, or violate copyright or other interest of any party. The Presenter shall protect, indemnify, and hold Baruch College and its employees and agents harmless from any and all claims, suits, actions, costs, and damages, including but not limited to attorney's fees in connection with any such matters, to which Baruch College or its employees or agents or all may be subjected by reason of publication of the presentation as provided for herein.
