

The CUNY Postdoctoral Program Presents:

ADVANCING YOUR ACADEMIC CAREER: HOW TO GET THE JOB YOU WANT

MEET YOUR FELLOW POSTDOCS AND LEARN HOW TO:

- WRITE A WINNING COVER LETTER TO GET THE INTERVIEW
- INTERVIEW AND NEGOTIATE TO GET THE ACADEMIC JOB YOU WANT

Wednesday, November 8, 2006

3:30pm - 7:30pm

3:30-3:45: Registration

3:45-6:30: Workshops

6:30-7:30: Networking & Refreshments

CUNY Graduate Center, Rm C197, C205

Register at: www.cuny.edu/research

Introducing the CUNY Postdoctoral Program
Dr. Gillian Small, Ph.D., University Dean for Research

WORKSHOP FACULTY

Dr. Virginia Valian, Ph.D.

Distinguished Professor of Psychology and Linguistics at Hunter College and the CUNY Graduate Center and co-director of the Gender Equity Project (GEP), she has presented her research on professional advancement at the NSF, NIH, AAAS and has been featured in The New York Times, Nature, Scientific American and the NewsHour with Jim Lehrer.

Dr. Annemarie Nicols-Grinenko, Ph.D.

In addition to directing all GEP initiatives and research projects, she is involved in program design, outcome assessment and research on gender biases as well as faculty development.

Dr. Giulia Bencini, Ph.D. is a Postdoctoral Fellow in psycholinguistics and cognitive science at Hunter College. She currently works on children's syntactic representations.

To learn about upcoming events and programs visit: www.cuny.edu/research