Services for Students with Disabilities

Baruch is committed to making individuals with disabilities full participants in its programs, services and activities through compliance with Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990. It is the policy of the Baruch College that no otherwise qualified individual with a disability shall be denied access to or participation in any program, service or activity offered by the universities. Individuals with disabilities have a right to request accommodations.

If you have a physical, psychological, or learning disability, Baruch College provides services through the Office of Services for Students with Disabilities (OSSD), a division of the Office of the Vice President for Student Development and Counseling. For more information contact Barbara Sirois, Coordinator of Services for Students with Disabilities, 55 Lexington Avenue, Room B2-271, 646-312-4590.

- Advocacy: an active process designed to make Baruch College’s systems more responsive to the needs of each individual served by the system
- Federal mandate 504 & Americans with Disabilities advocacy
- Pre-admission interviews & orientation
- Priority registration
- Tours as needed
- Modifications to academic requirements as necessary to ensure that such requirements do not discriminate against students with disabilities, or have the effect of excluding students solely on the basis of disability
- Room changes as needed for accessibility
- Reasonable modifications for exams
- Print materials available in alternate formats
- Provision of auxiliary aids: readers, writers, interpreters, note takers, science laboratory assistants, etc.
- Counseling for issues related to disability
- Outside referrals
- Assistive Technology Services
- Liaison with vocational rehabilitation