Baruch College honored women professionals at its annual Bernard Baruch Dinner at Cipriani 42nd Street to benefit the Baruch College Fund. The women of the Class of 1940 matriculated in 1936, the year that an earlier ban on women was lifted. The Trustees of the Baruch College Fund chooses this year’s honorees for their outstanding success in business and commitment to their communities. Four of the honorees will receive the Bernard Baruch Medal for Business and Civic Leadership. The fifth honoree, Dolly Lenz, will receive the Alumnae Award.

Commitment to their Communities. Four of the honorees will receive the Bernard Baruch Medal for Business and Civic Leadership. The fifth honoree, Dolly Lenz, will receive the Alumnae Award. The Trustees of the Baruch College Fund chose this year’s honorees for their outstanding success in business and commitment to their communities. Four of the honorees will receive the Bernard Baruch Medal for Business and Civic Leadership. The fifth honoree, Dolly Lenz, will receive the Alumnae Award.

Commitment to their Communities. Four of the honorees will receive the Bernard Baruch Medal for Business and Civic Leadership. The fifth honoree, Dolly Lenz, will receive the Alumnae Award. The Trustees of the Baruch College Fund chose this year’s honorees for their outstanding success in business and commitment to their communities. Four of the honorees will receive the Bernard Baruch Medal for Business and Civic Leadership. The fifth honoree, Dolly Lenz, will receive the Alumnae Award.

Commitment to their Communities. Four of the honorees will receive the Bernard Baruch Medal for Business and Civic Leadership. The fifth honoree, Dolly Lenz, will receive the Alumnae Award. The Trustees of the Baruch College Fund chose this year’s honorees for their outstanding success in business and commitment to their communities. Four of the honorees will receive the Bernard Baruch Medal for Business and Civic Leadership. The fifth honoree, Dolly Lenz, will receive the Alumnae Award.