Dear Applicant:

Thank you for your interest in the Robert and Marion Lowenfish Endowed Scholarship Fund. This scholarship fund was created through an endowment created by Robert and Marian Lowenfish and is aimed at supporting students in The Steven L. Newman Real Estate Institute Certificate Programs.

Each scholarship covers $1,250 of expenses incurred while a student pursues one or more certificate programs. These scholarships are intended to support career advancement for individuals. While exceptions may be made, each annual scholarship will be given to one student pursuing one or more certificate programs at a time. The disbursement of funds will be via reimbursements of course tuition expenses only after 100% of the completion of coursework.

To apply for the scholarship funds:

- Complete an application form.
- Submit also a recent paystub OR your most recent tax return OR proof of receipt of unemployment insurance benefits, blacking out all social security numbers.
- A letter of recommendation from a current or former work supervisor is not required, but may also be included with your application.

Submission Deadline:

September 30 – for Fall 2014 Registration

INFORMATION RELEASE FORM

The purpose of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) is to protect the privacy of information concerning individual students by placing certain restrictions of the disclosure of information contained in a student’s university records. I understand that I have the right not to consent to the release of my educational records and I have the right to receive a copy of such records upon request.

Should I be awarded a scholarship, I, the undersigned, hereby authorize the City University of New York to release the following educational records and information to Robert and Marion Lowenfish:

1. My name and demographic information contained in the application for the scholarship, such as my age, gender and ethnicity.
2. Information regarding the coursework to which my scholarship is applied, and confirmation that I enroll in and complete the course.

This information may be released for the purpose of providing information about scholarship recipients and continuing education coursework undertaken with support from the Foundation.

I understand that it will be necessary to send a written request to revoke this authorization.
