

Lawrence Zicklin

Larry Zicklin graduated in 1957 from Baruch College with a BBA and earned an MBA from Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania in 1959. Currently, Mr. Zicklin is a chairman of Baruch's non-governing board, The Baruch College Fund, where he has also served as president. Professionally, Zicklin was managing principal and chairman of Neuberger Berman, an investment management firm that is now part of Lehman Brothers. He began his career in the institutional sales department at Merrill Lynch. He is married to Carol Zicklin, who is also a graduate of New York City's public higher education system.

The Zicklins endowed the Zicklin School of Business with an $18 million gift in 1997. They have also donated $2 million as an endowment for Baruch College's Center for Financial Integrity.

Zicklin is a former president of the UJA Federation of New York. He is a Clinical Professor at the Stern School at New York University and a Senior Fellow at the Wharton School.
