

FALL 2009

Welcome!

On behalf of our 160+ clubs, the Office Of Student Life welcomes you to Baruch College. Your fellow classmates exhibit a great deal of initiative, energy and imagination, the nature of which is displayed in the clubs, organizations and the activities they provide.

Clubs and organizations span a wide range of interests. There is something for practically everyone. Membership in a club offers you a place to meet new people, as well as an opportunity to develop important communication, organizational and leadership skills. Check our website for descriptions of each club at www.baruch.cuny.edu/stulife. Choose something that interests you or start your own special interest club!

Most Undergraduate Clubs meet on Thursdays, 12:40 to 2:20pm (Club Hours). Clubs meeting on other days are so noted. Clubs also designated with [*D] meet during the day, 12:40-2:20pm, or with [*E] meet evenings, 6:00-9:00pm. Refer to this listing for locations of meetings, or contact Student Life, Room 2-210 in the 55 Lexington Avenue/Newman Vertical Campus (NVC) building, 646-312-4550, for more information.

Graduate Clubs meet at various times. Meeting rooms assigned are for Fridays, 6:00-9:00pm. Clubs meeting on other days are so noted. Clubs also designated with [*D] meet during the day, 12:40-2:20pm, or with [*E] meet evenings, 6:00-9:00pm.
