The degree map is a term-by-term sample course schedule to make it easier for you to understand how to graduate in four years with a Business Journalism major. Use the Degree Map along with DegreeWorks as tools to assist you in planning your academic path to graduation. Your specific program of study could, and probably will, look different. You need to customize your Degree Map to fit your individual needs.

NOTE: A minimum 120 credits is required for the Bachelor of Arts (BA) degree. A minimum of 90 liberal arts credits is required for the BA. FYS 1000 is a requirement for the first term at Baruch College and MUST be completed in order to graduate.

Notes about the Major

- The specialization will help students develop research, reporting, and interviewing skills; learn to mine data; develop article ideas, and communicate news to different audiences.
- With permission of the journalism advisor, writing-related Feit Seminars (IDC 4050H) and Harman Writer-in-Residence courses may be counted toward the major.
- Two major elective courses may be drawn from the offerings of other programs through Baruch College, subject to approval by the journalism advisor.
- Students interested in this major should consult with the Department of Journalism and the Writing Professions regarding major courses and requirements. The Department is located in VC 7-263 and may be contacted at 646-312-3974.
