This special issue of It’s Academic is geared to help you prepare for a successful semester at Baruch. Take full advantage of the on-campus resources that can help you succeed.

Writing Center

The Writing Center offers a variety of workshops to help Baruch students improve their writing and English language skills. For more information, see: http://www.baruch.cuny.edu/writingcenter/aboutus.html

Some workshops offered by the Writing Center are:

Reading and Interpretation

The three workshops in this series teach the strategies and processes of effective critical readers.

Structuring an Argument

The three workshops in this series will help you build clear, complicated arguments.

Writing with Research

These four workshops guide you through the research process, from developing a topic to understanding citation.

Revising and Process

The two workshops in this series teach you how to capitalize on both drafting and revision.

Location: Writing Center, NVC 8-185
Hours: M-TH: 10am-8pm, F: 10am – 2 pm, Sat: 11am-3pm (open during fall and spring semesters only)

Tutoring Center (SACC)

The Student Academic Consulting Center better known as “SACC” is Baruch College’s tutoring center. The SACC not only provides tutoring for an assortment of courses but also teaches study skills and strategies. Additionally, the SACC can help you:

- Learn how to approach an unknown subject
- Use your study time more effectively
- Get more out of your study sessions
- Organize your class notes

Tutors do not offer quick fixes by completing a student’s homework, quizzes, or take home tests. Instead they show students how to become independent learners.

SACC offers tutoring in:

Accounting, Business Law, COM 1010, English/Writing, ESL, Finance, Management, Marketing, Math, Modern Languages, Science, Statistics, and more.

Phone: (646) 312-4830
Location: SACC, NVC 2-116
Hours: M-TH: 9am –8pm , F: 9-3pm, Sat:10am-4pm
