

Program
2011 Annual Conference
Research Experience for Undergraduates at Baruch College
May 13th, 14-280, Vertical Campus Building

- 10:00am Professor Charles Scherbaum. Welcoming remarks.
- 10:15am Yelena Khvatskaya (Baruch College). Self-efficacy as a differentiating factor between functional and dysfunctional impulsivity. Advisor: Professor Artistico
- 10:30am Victoria Felix (Wagner College). Aversive racism in hiring judgments involving Asian Americans. Advisor: Professor Park
- 10:45am Hirah Mir (Hunter College). Construct validity of alternative tests of cognitive ability. Advisor: Professor Scherbaum
- 11:00am Elaina Montague (Baruch College). Understanding mindfulness. Advisor: Professor Artistico
- 11:15am Annie Tran (Lehman College) Ethics and effect of surveillance and fatigue. Advisor: Professor Engle-Friedman
- 11:30am COFFEE BREAK
- 11:45am Felicia O'Connor (Fordham University) Effects of technology on juror decision making. Advisor: Professor Park
- 12:00pm Clemente Diaz (Baruch College). Examining adverse impact of traditional and alternative standardized cognitive tests. Advisor: Professor Scherbaum
- 12:15pm Sara Rhone (City College). Effects of fatigue on facial affect interpretation and sociability. Advisor: Professor Engle-Friedman
- 12:30pm Katherine Bellesheim (St. John's University). The effects of counter-stereotypical female roles on the recall of gendered words. Advisor: Professor Park
- 12:45pm John Agosta (St. John's University). Reducing adverse impact using alternative cognitive ability assessments. Advisor: Professor Scherbaum
- 1:00pm Abu Nasim (St. Johns University). Do college students on psychiatric medication possess less academic self-efficacy than their non-medicated peers? Advisor: Professor Artistico.
- 1:15pm Professor Charles Scherbaum. Closing remarks

LUNCH