IRISH NOVELIST

Belinda McKeon

WILL GIVE A READING FROM HER
AWARD-WINNING 2011 NOVEL, SOLACE,
AND ANSWER QUESTIONS.

MONDAY, MARCH 26TH
AT 4PM
VC 14-280

Solace was published in 2011 by Scribner (US) and Picador. It received a number of international awards, being named a Kirkus Outstanding Debut of 2011 and Bord Gáis Energy Irish Book of the Year 2011 at the Irish Book Awards, as well as winning the Sunday Independent Best Newcomer award. Belinda McKeon has published in journals including The Paris Review, The Guardian and The Dublin Review, and has been anthologized in Fishamble Firsts: New Playwrights (New Island, 2008) and New Irish Short Stories (Faber, 2011). She has also written on the arts for The Irish Times for over ten years, and has interviewed writers including John McGahern, Richard Ford, Amy Bloom, John Banville, Colm Toibin, Eavan Boland, W.S. Merwin, and Joan Didion.