

Sandra Kahn Wasserman
JEWISH STUDIES CENTER

Professor Jessica Lang, William Newman Director

Monday, October 31st

Time: 6:00 – 8:30 PM

Location: 55 Lexington Avenue, Rm 14-270

The Wasserman Jewish Studies Center
The Baruch College Department of Philosophy and the Center for Jewish-Christian Understanding Present:

Michael Wyschogrod Memorial

Featuring: Eugene Korn, Center for Jewish-Christian Understanding

Daniel Wyschogrod

Leora Badnitzky, Princeton University

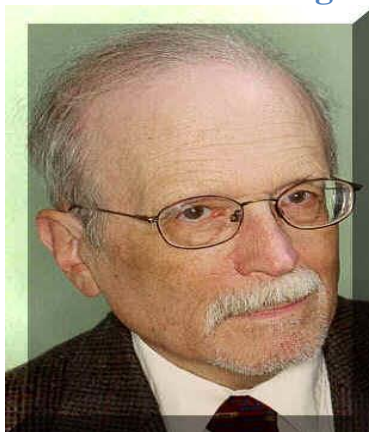

Kendall Soulen, Emory University

Tamar Wyschogrod

Douglas Lackey, Baruch College

Mark Zelcer, SUNY

Michael Wyschogrod was a renowned scholar of Jewish studies and very active in Jewish affairs in New York City and internationally. His publications include "Parable and Story in Judaism and Christianity", "The Body of Faith: God in the People Israel", "Abraham's Promise: Judaism and Jewish-Christian Relations", and many others. Baruch should remember him as one of the Founding Fathers of the college.

To reserve your seat, please email:
jewish.studies.center@baruch.cuny.edu