FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

Q How much tutoring can I request per week?
A Six hours of math per week and three additional hours for any other subject.

Q How long are the sessions?
A 60 minutes.

Q Is the SACC open to anyone?
A Yes. The SACC serves Baruch’s undergraduate student population.

Q Is there a charge for tutoring?
A No. Tutoring is free.

Q Do I need to make an appointment?
A Students are encouraged to make appointments up to a week in advance, but drop-ins are possible.

Q Can I bring a classmate with me?
A Study partners are encouraged.

Q How do I become a tutor?
A You must have completed 24 Baruch credits, have a GPA of 3.3 or higher, and 4.0’s in the subjects that you’d like to tutor. Two referrals from professors are required.

---

STUDENT SURVEY

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Question Answered</th>
<th>Agreed or Strongly Agreed</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>The tutors were willing to listen to my questions</td>
<td>94%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I would recommend SACC to others</td>
<td>94%</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The tutors were knowledgeable about the subject</td>
<td>87%</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

---

“In my experience, the biggest contribution to my students’ improvement in a course has been their regular and active involvement in tutoring at SACC.”

—April Allen-Macarowski
tenor, Department of Mathematics

“My experience at SACC was absolutely gratifying. It was like one big—very close—family. SACC will always remain one of the highlights of my Baruch career.”

—Lionel Wynett
English, History, and CPE tutor

“I started coming here as a student and earned an A in pre-cal and calculus, and now I’m a calculus tutor!”

—Megha Anora
Math tutor