Your event will not be published in the calendar until the Space Manager approves your facility request.

For more information regarding this workflow, please visit the Active Data Calendar Space Reservation Workflow guide.

The screenshot shows the 'Add Event - Schedule & Request Facility' form in the Active Data Calendar interface. The form is titled 'Add Event - Schedule & Request Facility [Event Name]'. It features a navigation bar with tabs for 'Events', 'Registration', 'Workflow', 'Facilities', 'Resources', 'Categorization', and 'Marketing'. The 'Facilities' tab is currently selected. The form is divided into several sections:

1. Fill out the contact information. For the other boxes under "Other Event Information", check them off if it is appropriate for your event. For example, if it is a school or department event, check off the school or department that is holding it. If you do not find your school or department in the list, please send a request to the BCTC Help Desk to have this added.
2. If you would like your event listed in the CUNY Calendar (<http://events.cuny.edu/>), select "Yes. Make this event visible in the CUNY Calendar" for the "Promote in CUNY Calendar" box, otherwise select "No. Do not make this event visible in the CUNY Calendar".

If your event is in a private category or "Select", select "No. Do not make this event visible in the CUNY Calendar" as private events and select events are not published to the CUNY calendar.

3. If attendees will be charged for your event, check "Yes", otherwise "No".
4. For the "Rate Category", please see below:
 - a. If your Dean/VP has not given you a rate category, you should set it to "TBD by Dean or VP".

As part of the Space Policy, you must get a rate category from your Dean/VP. You must save the event afterwards and send your event information to the Dean/VP.

- b. If your Dean/VP has given you a rate category for your event, you should set it to the rate category they've given you here.

5. Click "Preview" at the bottom right of the screen.

Preview Screen

On the preview screen you can opt to save the event or release the event. See below for which option you should select.

- The "Save Event" option will not publish your event to the calendar or send a facility request to a Space Manager. An event should be saved when you have not received the rate category from your Dean/VP yet (Any rate category other than "TBD by Dean or VP") or if you are missing event information and wish to fill it in at a later time.

In order to receive a rate category from your Dean/VP, you must send them the event information by following the instructions further below.

- The "Release Event" option will send a facility request to the Space Manager (if there is a facility requested) and publish your event to the calendar (if it's a public/private event).

If your event has a rate category of "TBD by Dean or VP" and it is released with a facility request, it will not be approved by the Space Manager. Your Dean/VP will give you a rate category for your event after you send them the event information. Steps for sending them the event information can be found further below.

See the appropriate section below dependent upon whether or not the rate category was given by the Dean/VP.

Rate Category was received from Dean/VP and set to anything other than "TBD by Dean or VP"

1. Click "Finish" at the bottom right of the screen if you have a rate category set to anything other than "TBD by Dean or VP".

You have now successfully added an event to the calendar and a facility request will be made if you have requested a facility.

IMPORTANT - If your event is booked for a facility that you are not the Space Manager of, the event will not be published into the Calendar until the facility request has been approved.

Modifying Events with Registration / Active Registrants

Please follow these instructions if you wish to modify an event that accepts RSVPs on the calendar.

Please note that it is not possible to change the event date, start time, or end time when you have people registered for your event. If you only wish to change the time of the event, it is recommended the registrants are emailed with the new time and the new time can be noted in the event description.

If you need to reschedule the event for another date, it is recommended that you email all registrants and notify them of the new date, cancel the event (which will send cancellation emails to all registrants), and reschedule the event. The registrants cannot be carried over.

When you cancel an event, it will give you an option to reschedule the event. Rescheduling the event will allow you to create the event again with all of the information from the previous event already populated.

If you delete (not cancel) an event with registrants, all of the registration information will be lost.

- For "Registration Form Template", it is advised to set up your own template as this allows you to control the different options of the form. If you wish to do this, please see the section below. The standard form has a set of options that cannot be changed. The options are noted in the list below. If these options are satisfactory, then select "Use Standard Form" as the registration form template.
 - The standard form sets all registrants to "pending" which means you will have to go into the system and manually approve people who have registered for the event.
 - The standard form emails the user who created the event with a notification every time someone registers for the event
 - The standard form only asks for the user's first name, last name, and email address.
- For "Registration Rules", this only applies to an event with multiple occurrences (for example, an open house event that occurs every two weeks with registration). The following options are available:
 - Single Occurrence Level Registration Only Enforced - a registrant can only register for one occurrence (can only attend one open house)
 - Multiple Occurrence Registration Allowed - a registrant can register for all open house events
- Make sure to set the following fields as they are required
 - Maximum Registrants - Check unlimited if you do not want a limit. If you set a limit, please be advised that the limit only counts towards registrants who have been approved for the event. If your form automatically approves registrants, they will all count towards this limit. If they are set to pending first, no registrants will be counted for the limit until you go into the registration and approve users.

- Registration Deadline
 - Cancellation Deadline - When the user registers for an event, they also receive a link to cancel their registration. This will set a deadline for allowing cancellations
5. You can also set the event to display if registration spaces are still available. Setting it to yes will show how many spaces are still available.
 6. You can ignore the "Additional Registrant Information" as this is not normally used.
 7. The registration portion is done, you can proceed with other event changes or click "Preview" and finalize the event.

 - Checkbox - A field where multiple values can be selected/are true. For example, the field "Which CUNY Schools have you visited?" could have multiple choices that would be applicable.
 - Comma Separated Text Field - Allows users to enter different values separated by comma into a text field (rarely used)
 - Dropdown - Similar to radio button, but the interface is a drop-down menu. This is useful for fields with a large amount of choice but only allows the user to pick one (such as what state the registrant is from).
 - Radio Button - Similar to dropdown, but all of the answers are displayed on the screen instead of in a drop-down menu. This is preferred for questions with a small amount of choices such as gender of the registrant where the user can only pick one choice.
 - Text Area - Similar to text field, but allows for more text. This should be used when the user is expected to type more than one line of text.
 - Text Field - Similar to text area, but should be used for one line text. This could be a field where a phone number is requested or how many guests the user is bringing to the event.
 - Date Selector - This is a text field, but with a button that displays a calendar with dates to select from. This should be used for anything using a date such as birth date of the registrant.

The main content area is titled "All Categories" and features a "Display Format" dropdown menu. Below this is a calendar grid for November 2012, with a "Display Month" dropdown. This section includes a "Go Back" link, a "remind me" button, a "notify me" button, an "add to my calendar" button, and an "email a friend" button. The event details specify a start date of 11/15/2012 at 12:30 PM and an end date of 11/15/2012 at 2:30 PM. It notes that the event recurs on Thursdays every week until 12/6/2012. The location is listed as Baruch College - Newman Vertical Campus, 55 Lexington Ave, Room: 2nd Floor Lobby. There is also a "SHRRE" button and an "Event Description" section.

Advanced Search filters are visible on the left side, including "From" (11/15/2012), "To" (12/14/2012), "Category(s)", "Schools/Departments", "Student Clubs and Orgs", and "Keyword(s)". A "Submit" button is at the bottom of these filters.

3. In the address bar (highlighted in blue at the top of the image), copy this URL/address. This is the link that you can distribute to users to see your event specifically in the calendar.
