

Supplemental Instruction and Its Requirements

Students who have failed an ESL course once will be placed on remedial probation for the following semester. While on remedial probation, a student will be restricted to two courses, including the ESL course. Students who fail to pass the ESL course after two attempts will be dismissed from the College.

Students who have been dismissed from the College for failure to pass an ESL course after two attempts will be encouraged to register at a CUNY community college to complete their ESL program. Before students who are dismissed for their failure to pass their ESL course may return to Baruch College, they must present a transcript showing that they have passed all three CUNY Basic Skills Tests and that they are eligible for credit-bearing mathematics courses.
