

Economics

For additional program information see the Zicklin School website

The MBA with a major in economics (ECO) prepares the student for a broad range of careers in business, industry, and government. Elective courses within the major are selected in consultation with a faculty advisor. Students interested in this program should contact the Bert W. Wasserman Department of Economics and Finance.

View MBA degree requirements

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                |                                          |           |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------|-----------|
| Preliminary Course                                                                                                                                                                                                      |                                          |           |
| In addition to the major requirements, the following preliminary course is required. Grades in 8000-level courses are not calculated in the grade point average.                                                               |                                          |           |
| MTH 8001                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Calculus for Applications I*             | 3 credits |
| * Students may substitute MTH 2207 Applied Calculus and Matrix Applications or MTH 2610 Calculus I for MTH 8001 on a space-available basis. These undergraduate courses are each 4 hours, 4 credits; graduate tuition applies. |                                          |           |
| Major Courses (12 credits)                                                                                                                                                                                              |                                          |           |
| ECO 9723                                                                                                                                                                                                       | Econometrics - Theory and Applications I | 3 credits |
| ECO 9741                                                                                                                                                                                                       | International Economics I                | 3 credits |
| Two additional courses approved by the economics advisor.                                                                                                                                                                      |                                          | 6 credits |